

CITIZEN POLICE ACADEMY

The Pittsburgh Citizen's Police Academy offers citizens a chance to experience police training and learn about the roles and responsibilities of the Police Bureau. The program is free and provides a safe and entertaining environment to learn about the various operations of the police bureau.

The CPA program offers 2 hours of training each week for 12 weeks. Participants will learn about criminal law, patrol tactics, police accountability, and other subjects related to policing. They will be exposed to various specialty police units and how police canines are used. The program covers the basics of processing crimes.

You must be at least 19yrs old to apply.

All interested persons must complete the on-line application for consideration.
